photography - 1141 west grand ave - wisconsin rapids - wi - 54495 (715)424-4462

When you want the best digital wedding photography or black and white wedding photography Gooch's is the professional wedding photography that provide you with the style that you expect to receive.

Just as your wedding should be a memorable occasion... Your wedding photography should reflect that! Our style although traditional has some journalistic style added to the mix. Unlike other photographers, Gooch's not only guarantee's your plan price but will also guarantee the reorder pricing in effect on your booking date. As a result of our popularity some dates are booked 1 to 2 years in advance. Please email or call us to check if your date is available. As of 2006, Photography by Gooch's will no longer accept outdoor weddings, we only accept church or enclosed indoor weddings.

All weddings are time only weddings. We found by doing this you are afforded the best photography at the most reasonable pricing. You may build your plan from there any way you like it. All your proofs are placed online usually the Thursday after your wedding on a password protected site. Proofs are left online for 3 weeks and you and your friends may order at that time. Pricing for photos is dependant as to when you book your wedding and is at the bottom of your contract.

All minor retouching and enhancements are performed on all images that are needed. All plans also not only include the photographer but also a detail and posing professional to make sure your photos are of the highest quality.
